From The Crown

Unto Our most noble and gracious subjects do Vagn and Thora, King and Queen of the Outlands, send warmest greetings in these cold days of January.

Good people: We hope one and all had a merry holiday season. We also hope you read these letters with hearts and minds eager for war.

Before turning to such martial thoughts, however, We wish first to thank the people of Windkeep who made Us feel so welcome and provided Us a wonderful time at Hunter's Feast. We also thank those good citizens for their sizable contribution to the Outlandish Herald. Such generosity is no surprise in these Outlands, but is well appreciated nonetheless.

We wish to congratulate Mistress Aileen Barden and Master Kragon whom We inducted into the Order of the Laurel and the Order of the Pelican, respectively; and invite one and all to Caerthen Twelfth Night for the induction of Lady Elizabeth O'Byrnnne into the Order of the Pelican.

Many thanks are due to the people of Drygestan and al-Barran for favoring Us with excellent Midwinter celebrations. The burden of the crown seems all the lighter with such joyous entertainment as we enjoyed at both events.

And now to WAR! We charge each subject of the Outlands able to do so to travel with Us to the upcoming Estrella War. Even if you are not fighting, you do great service by supporting Our fighters on the field by bringing them lunch, water, and good cheer to keep them battling for honor and victory.

Again We ask Our artisans to present to Us their greatest works that We may give them to the other visiting royals at Estrella. In this way the entire Knowne World may know of the talent and skill of the Outlands.

There will be an Outlands feast at Estrella to which We invite Our subjects. If you would like to help or donate funds to offset the cost, please contact Sir Avram at (505) 260-0723.

In closing, We ask that you remember these words:

Rumors are like weeds in the gardens of the Outlands. Weeds serve gardens ill and can quickly overrun more beautiful flowers. Rumors spread as quickly as weeds and do as much harm. Please help keep the Outlands beautiful by tending her gardens.

Candlemas

February 4

Protect us, O Lord, from the wrath of the Northmen!

Good gentles, pray attend! The Barony of Dragonsspine wishes to announce its plans to celebrate the coming of Candlemas. Please join us as we celebrate this year with a Viking theme. The day will resound with Northern play, pugnacity, and repast.

This year's festivities will be entirely Northern in tradition and atmosphere. Barring a killer snow storm, this years Candlemas will include fighting! Activities will consist of:

Odin's Ordeal - a masochist flavored fighting tourney with a Viking flair.

Valkyries' Fire - a ship board fencing tourney,

Braggi's Tongue - an insult and challenge match.

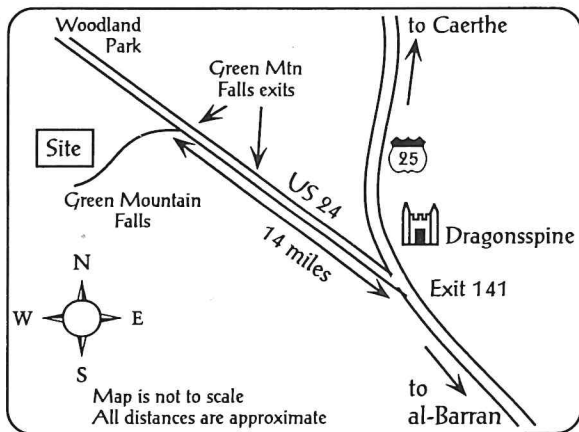

Ragnar's Rags - a contest for the most authentic Viking garb.

Prizes will be awarded for all these competitions. The prize for Ragnar's Rags will be donated by The Honorable Lady Brilliantia, Baroness of Dragonsspine, and will include rare scented oils and precious spices from the Far East. No documentation is requested; the costumes will be judged on their appearance.

For those good gentles with a hearty Viking appetite, a feast will be provided by Duchess Selene. Fare will reflect a Northern banquet style. Due to our theme, fare will not be provided for vegetarians, but off-board seating will be available. The Dragonsspine Brewers and Vintners Guild will also host a tasting competition and silent auction.

For those with interest in things Heraldic, the Heralds Guild will be on hand to answer your questions about devices, names, submissions, and heady colorful suchlike.

This year's Candlemas promises to be truly period and a smashing good time for all Outlanders with a love of Northern "festival".

The site for this year is the Sallie Bush Community Center. Directions and further activities will be included in the next Outlandish Herald. For more information, contact your barbaric autocrat.

Site fee is $7, with a $3 discount for members. Feast cost is $8 for adults, children 6-14 are $4, and children 5 and under are free.

Estrella War XI--Brothers in Arms

February 15-20

Where: Estrella Regional Park ~ 15099 Casey Abbot Road North ~ Goodyear, AZ

When: February 15-20, 1995 ~ Gate will open at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, February 15.

Fees: Site Fee - $30.00 each Wednesday to Monday; $25.00 each Friday to Monday; Per Day Fee-$15.00; There is a $5.00 discount with proof of membership.

Merchant Fees (in addition to site fee): $55.00 single space; $90.00 double.

Entry: No personal checks accepted, please have your Fighter Authorization and proof of membership ready at the gate.

Greetings One and All from those lands kissed by the Sun. As the winds and rains once again cross our lands from the depths of Argonia, attention turns to preparations for this tremendous Estrella War.

This year the Armies and Artisans of Atenveldt shall meet their brothers from the Outlands upon the fields of Estrella. The noble Armies of Caid shall be attending to balance the sides as the Outlands had done the previous year. We invite the Knowne Worlde to attend and enjoy six days of Fighting, Arts, Camaraderie, Revelry and Shopping!

This year we have expanded the site with a larger and more accessible Merchants Row (set in a new portion of the Park, east of the Fighting Field.) To the south of Merchants Row (in the tree grove) we have reserved a large space for "Enchanted Ground." Everyone who wishes to take part in this area is cordially invited to attend.

With the moving of Merchants Row to a more spacious area, we now have a great deal more camping space. The eastern camping area of the park will be "Sleepy Hollow" for all you early risers. The rest of the Park is there for your enjoyment as normal. The park has improved the shoulders of the road to allow "head in" parking instead of parallel, Huzzah! This should relieve a great deal of the parking headaches.

If you wish to rent a pavilion, please contact Tri-Rentals, (602) 966-3474. This is not the same tent company as last year and we believe that this will resolve many of the difficulties we've experienced in the past (the autocrats are NOT responsible for any hassles that may occur as a result of using a mundane vendor!) Ask for Estrella War information or Mr. Ed Ayo (they have literature in the information packet, see listing below) as they have special pricing and packages just for us at volume discount levels.

As usual, weather is unpredictable in the Great Southern Desert. Be prepared for anything from hot days, to cold nights, to rain and wind. All flames must be enclosed in a container; fire-pits, lanterns and enclosed torches are fine--open candles and unscreened tiki torches are not. Please bring a fire extinguisher for each tent by order of the City of Goodyear Fire Marshal. All minors not accompanied by their parent must have a NOTARIZED Minor's Waiver and Medical Waiver (your Seneschal should have these.)

Once again, there are NO accommodations for horses. Please don't bring them. That's the park's ruling, not ours--they will not be allowed into the park. All pets must be kept on leashes, or secured in your camp. There will be no pets allowed in the food areas of Merchants Row. Animals found running loose will be turned over by the Park Rangers to local animal control officers.

For more information, send a SASE with 2 (that's two) stamps to: Estrella War XI--

Children's Activities at Estrella War XI

I. Children's activities will be at the discretion of the Children Autocrat and will be contingent upon the number of children present at the time, their ages, their interests (SCA and mundane), the materials/ resources available, and — most importantly — the number of volunteers helping out. Therefore, 1) parents are VERY strongly urged to contact me as soon as possible and let me know how many children they're planning to bring, how old the children are, and what the children's interests are; and 2) volunteers are being actively solicited- the more the merrier (I'm good with children, but not THAT good- I can't do this ALL by myself).

I will be bringing water and disposable cups, however, parents are urged to bring along a cup / mug for their child(ren) with his / her / their name on it. This will make for less trash to pick up, and will eliminate confusion about who's cup is whose. Parents will be responsible for providing food and drink other than water — which should be identified with the child — for their child or donations will be gratefully accepted. If your child is prone to "accidents", please provide extra clothing.

Donation of supplies and materials are highly encouraged. Accordingly, I have a "Wish List" of preferred donations, thus: balls of various types and sizes; volunteers; child- sized furniture (tables, chairs, cots, desks, etc.); board games (with rules, please); volunteers; toy golf, croquet, and bowling sets; jump ropes; beanbags; volunteers; child-oriented books on period topics; child safe arts and crafts; and, did I mention, volunteers.

II. There will be - if enough instructors volunteer — a Children's Collegium to be conducted during the evening, from approximately 7:30 PM to 9:30 PM, or thereabouts, for children 10 years of age and older. If enough instructors volunteer, I hope to offer classes in Heraldry, Calligraphy & Illumination, Music, Dance, Games, Costuming, History & Lore of the Middle Ages and Renaissance, and Arts & Crafts. If you are interested in and willing to teach any of these subjects, PLEASE get in touch with me as soon as possible, so that we can work out a schedule that will work for you, me, and the children. I hope to conduct the Collegium on Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, so, hopefully, there will be lots of time slots available to choose from if you get in touch with me soon.

III. Rules (Yes, there ARE rules to be adhered to — that's how we all stay safe, happy, and civilized):

1) ALL children MUST be signed- in and signed- out by a parent or guardian who is at least 18 years of age — NO EXCEPTIONS!

2) Only the person who signed the child in, or a guardian designated in advance, and presenting acceptable identification, will be allowed to sign a child out.

3) ALL children must be clearly labelled/ identifiable — i.e.: there will be no “that kid is over there, next to...” (heraldic- style attire is suggested - it's easy to see/ identify, and it's period. A simple tabard or baldric will suffice.)

4) No child under 4 years of age will be accepted EXCEPT BY PRIOR ARRANGEMENT. Such arrangements MUST be made no later than February 11 — ABSOLUTELY! NO EXCEPTIONS!!!

5) I / we are NOT a baby- sitting service: all children must be potty- trained, able to drink from a cup, and able to eat regular food in order to be accepted — I don't do diapers and I don't do bottles because I simply won't have the time.

6) Parents will be responsible for feeding, bathing, clothing (completely please) and disciplining their children — unruly children will be separated and/ or returned to their parents.

7) NO STEEL AT ALL!!! Period. NO EXCEPTIONS! The same goes for plastic “steel” (Boffers are O.K., but please see Duke Sir Deaton about Boffer Stuff). All children must check their weapons at the door.

8) Hours of Operation: 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. There may be some hours on Wednesday the 15th and Monday the 20th, depending on how set-up and pack-up go — please check with me first.

9) Children must be retrieved by 6:15 PM - the Collegium (see above) starts at 7:30 PM, and I need some time for myself too. Children not retrieved by 6:15 will be guests at a “sugar party”.

If you have any questions, wish to volunteer, want to make reservations, or have any of your own, or if you have any polite suggestions, please contact me — by phone or by postcard — thusly:

Hearts

March 4th

Be it known to all that the Hearts is coming. It is planned as a day of fighting for both heavy and rapier combatants, and a night of feasting and dancing. The date of this event will be March 4th.

For heavy weapons, two tournaments are planned – one will be a plunder. Space for different melee scenarios is available.

For al-Barran rapier fighters, a new “Protector of the Baroness' Heart” and the “Premier Blade of al-Barran” will be “chosen.” A plunder tourney will also be fought, and this is open to all authorized rapier fighters.

A potluck Feast is planned for that evening. Site is still in question. Court dancing is also planned. Crash space is available. For more information about this event, contact Don Echevarian Peregrinus at (505) 345-643, or Lord Oengus of Greymist at E-mail Oengus@unm.edu

Slush, Mud and Muck III

April 15, 1994

As the snows of winter melt, the finest season of all comes to Ard Tir... Slush. We invite all to come help us celebrate with a fine Hungarian Feast and whatever activities you choose to bring with you. We will have a large indoor area available for gaming, talking, dancing, flirting, etc., so bring your favorite activities. We also have the use of the grass from the site to the street, so, depending on interest (and weather conditions) a tourney will be organized that day for all interested fighters. There will also be a small A&S competition with two main areas: documented and undocumented items. This is to encourage all to try their hand at entering their handiwork in a competition.

The feast menu is as follows:

All day: Assorted hot drinks will be available

On table: Bread, Cheese, and Fruit

1st course: Leek Soup, Salad

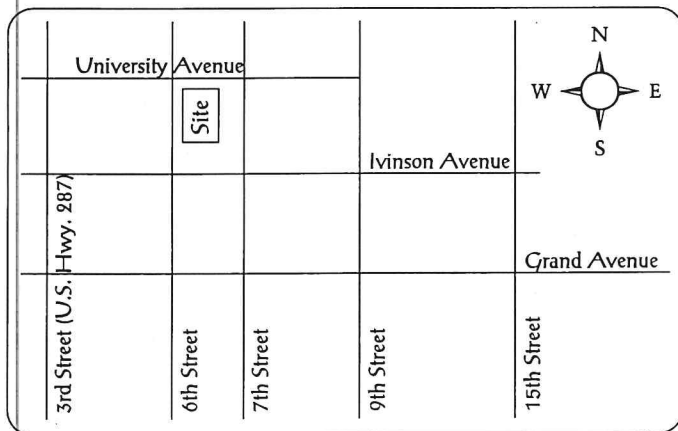

2nd course: Marjoranas Tokany (Marjoram Tokany w/Beef) Csirke Paprikas (Chicken Paprikas) Tarhonya (Hungarian Pasta) Honey Carrots

3rd course: Almas, Megyes, es Makos Retes (Apple, Cherry, and Poppy Seed Strudel)

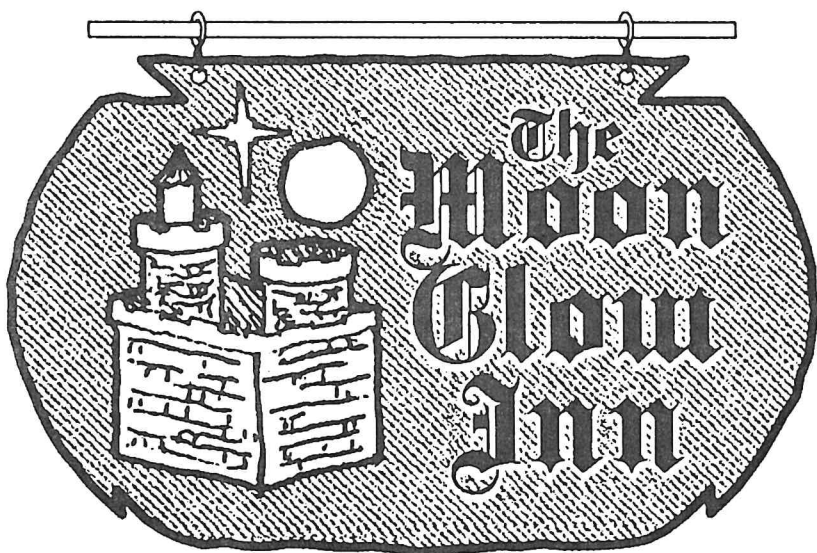

The site will open at 1:00, feast will be served around 6:00 and we must leave the site by midnight. If you have any questions or special dietary requirements, please contact the autocrat.

Event Fees: Site $3.00 (Ages 5-13 $1.50) Feast: $4.00 (Ages 5-15 $2.00) Children under five (5) free. $3.00 additional charge for non-members. The feast is restricted to 75 gentles, so reservations are highly recommended and appreciated. Make all checks payable to SCA - Ard Tir.

The site is the Alice Hardy Stevens Center. To reach it if you come into Laramie from I-25, take the Grand Ave. exit. Drive down Grand Ave. to 15th St. and turn right. From the Seneschal

Baron Lambert de Sur

Season's Greetings to All!

Thanks to all of the seneschals, autocrats, and everyone else who have been working to ensure that Outlands events comply with the Society's nonmember surcharge and waiver policies. The Outlands and Meridies were recently complemented by the Society Seneschal for our diligence and timeliness in submitting the surcharges. As of the end of November, the Outlands has collected $777 for 259 nonmembers at 15 events. Please keep up the good work and ensure that the fees and waivers are collected at all of our events.

I am attempting to document the SCA's support to schools and communities in the Outlands. If you have received letters of appreciation for school demos, support to community projects, or similar activities within the past year, would you please send me a copy? I encourage all groups to become involved in their communities through educational programs at schools and libraries and service projects. Please endeavor to always portray the SCA in the best possible light in your written materials and presentations by emphasizing our historical research and recreation activities.

The beginning of new the Gregorian year signals the time for submission of the annual officer doomsday reports. I ask that the local seneschals have their reports to me by the fifteenth of January. This end-of-year summary of your group's status and activities is the primary source for my report to the Crown and the Society. Lack of a doomsday report reflects a poorly functioning group. The other kingdom officers are setting their own reporting schedules, but we all would appreciate receiving the reports as soon after the start of the new year as possible.

Please note that the change to Outlands Kingdom Law published this month requires SCA membership in order to be authorized for combat-related activities. This requirement takes effect immediately.

The war with Atenveldt at Estrella is rapidly approaching. Please continue your preparations so that the Outlands may be well represented on the field and in the arts competitions as well as in all of the other activities at this great event.

Happy Holidays

Lambert

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

I wish to thank my gratitude to all those people who have donated money to The Outlandish Herald over the past month. With your support, we now have enough funds to produce the OH for another 3 months. We will still need more donations to make it through 1995, so please continue to support your newsletter.

I especially wish to thank the shire of Windkeep for their most generous donation. As you can see from the front cover, good deeds don't always go unrewarded.

If your collection of The Outlandish Herald is not quite complete, the solution is at hand. Extra copies of many back issues are available for a modest donation. Find out what was happening in our kingdom in years past, or just enjoy the artwork and articles. If you are looking for a specific issue, write or call and I'll tell you if I've got it.

The efforts most people have made to get submissions in on time are commendable, but still a few are later every month. If you think that your submission might arrive after the deadline, please call and let me know it's coming; that way I know to make room for it and you know for sure that it'll make it in to the next issue. If you can't avoid being late, remember that e-mail is my preferred courier for articles. I'm much more inclined to make allowances if the submission is in electronic format.

I remain,

Alwyn

From the White Stag Principal herald

Mistress Fiachra ni Ciardhubhain

I have pleasant news to announce this month - Many local heralds felt that the price of submissions was a bit high, so a number of local heralds stopped accepting the sum which they were supposed to keep for their expenses.

Thanks to these folks, and a bit of pushing from various quarters to find out the average sum it takes to keep the office running smoothly and in the black. The cost of submissions is now $7.00 per item. I realize the word has already made it to most of the populace through the grapevine, but I thought I should make it official.

This month I don't have a Letter from Lord Laurel. So, I decided to use this opportunity to explain the submissions process in the Outlands. A majority of the confusion seems to arise after a submission gets to the Kingdom. "Just what the heck are you heralds doing with my submission, and where is it?" submitters et al.

Once your submission gets to the Kingdom it will go out on an Internal Letter of Intent which is examined by local heralds and others who wish to comment on the submissions. Approximately 45 days later I hold a meeting which considers all the commentary received on that letter, and the decision is made to Pass or Return the various submissions at Kingdom. If your submission is returned you should receive a letter from my office. If your submission passes at Kingdom (you won't get notified), it will be put on an External Letter of Intent which is sent to the College of Arms, which consists of some 55 commenting members, and the Laurel King of Arms. The CoA has 2 months to comment on this Letter, the next two months are used for comments on comments, responses to, or rebuttal of those comments. Lord Laurel holds a meeting at the end of this 4 month period where he takes all the commentary under consideration and makes the final decision on whether a submission should be accepted or returned. After this meeting it takes 3 to 4 weeks for the Letter of Acceptance and Return to be prepared for printing and mailing. As soon as I receive my copy it usually takes about a 1 day turn around for me to get your individual letters in the mail to you and your local herald. And that's it in a rather large nutshell.

Now, since you folks whose submissions go to Laurel don't get individual letters from Kingdom telling you the good news, I have asked to be allowed to put a brief form of the External Letter of Intent in the O.H. The last time I did this it was done without warning and caused some confusion amongst the Outlands populace. So I've come up with a very abbreviated format that lets you know your submission has passed its first major hurdle (Kingdom) and is now in the hands of the CoA and Lord Laurel for final disposition. I will give you the date the External Letter of Intent went Out and approximately when it will be considered by Lord Laurel, and approximately when you should hear from me about that all important final decision from Lord Laurel. Lets start this with the Nov. 94 External Letter of Intent. (In most cases I will only use a first name)

External Letter of Intent: 28 Nov 94, should be considered by Lord Laurel at his April 95 meeting, I should be able to notify you before Grand Outlandish.

From the Kingdom Scribe

Mistress Joella of Blue Lion's Keep

Greetings unto the Populace of the Outlands from your Kingdom Scribe

Congratulations go forth to the new Crown, TRM Vagn and Thora. We had very busy scribes this past reign, 29 are known to me to have created scrolls for Artan III and Aziza. Thanks to all of them for helping bring their skills to the call of our kingdom. Some of them had very short notice but still managed to turn out excellent pieces.

Their Majesties, Vagn and Thora prefer King and Queen as the titles used in scrolls. If anyone has some spare time on their hands, I know that their Majesties could use as many blank AoA scrolls as possible. If you are uncertain of the text contact me and I'll be happy to give you the information.

Another reminder, if you are interested in teaching a Scribal class at the Known World Heraldic Symposium in June, please contact me ASAP. I need to start scheduling people and materials.

Here is a list of scribes who created scrolls during the Reign of Artan III and Aziza.

From the Board of Directors

One of our number recently had occasion to spend a day at the Corporate Office in Milpitas, opening boxes of "stuff" which had been returned by previous Board members. We expected to find files of Minutes, back ombudsman files, and the like. We did. We also found several files and envelopes of unanswered correspondence.

We now know what happened to many of the letters that people complained had been unanswered. We apologize for this. We also ask that, if you have concerns with the matters currently facing the Corporation, you write your Kingdom Ombudsman. Your letters will be acknowledged.

THE NOTE WENT INTO MY DESK DRAWER WHERE IT LIVED FOR QUITE A FEW YEARS. I'D FIND IT EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE, BUT I SELDOM THOUGHT ABOUT IT.

ONE DAY I WAS CLEANING MY DESK AND THE NOTE POPPED OUT. I DECIDED TO FIGURE OUT IF THE DATE MEANT ANYTHING. THE DATE WAS NOW ABOUT 7 YEARS IN THE PAST.

IT FLOORED ME...

THAT'S WHERE I FIRST ENCOUNTERED THE SCA.

Martin Said to his Man

Oh, Mar-tin said to his man, "Fie, man, fie." Oh, Mar-tin said to his man,

"Who's the fool now?" Oh, Mar-tin said to his man, "Fill thou the cup and I the can. Thou hast well drunk-en, man. Who's the fool now?"

I saw a mouse catch a cat, fie, man, fie
 I saw a mouse catch a cat, who's the fool now?
 I saw a mouse catch a cat, and the cheese did eat the rat.
 Thou hast well drunken, man, who's the fool now?

I saw a flea heave a tree, fie, man, fie
 I saw a flea heave a tree, who's the fool now?
 I saw a flea heave a tree, twenty miles out to sea.
 Thou hast well drunken, man, who's the fool now?

I saw a maid milk a bull, fie, man, fie
 I saw a maid milk a bull, who's the fool now?
 I saw a maid milk a bull, with every stroke a bucketful.
 Thou hast well drunken, man, who's the fool now?

Repeat first verse.
